

Bay Area Genealogical Society General Meeting Notes

Friday, July 27, 2007

Alice Braud-Jones, 1st Vice-President called the meeting to order at 6:00 p.m.

Bill Teas, Sergeant-at-Arms led us in the "Pledge of Allegiance" and the "Texas Pledge".

Jeanine Lawrence welcomed everyone to the meeting. Jeanine read from Hebrews 11:8-16, and led them in a prayer.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

1. We had the following visitors at the meeting: Joy Callaway, Paul & Karen Hangsleber, Jerry Ross, Karen Ross, Norma Davenport, Kaye Evans, Martha Rolingson, Bob Rolingson, Gere & Frank Clements, H. Wayne Beck, Al Withrow, Elaine Brammer, Claudette Stark, Ginny Toney (speaker), Ginny Toney's son & his wife from Dallas, and Lewis H. Jarman.
2. The next bus trip to the Clayton Library will be on Wednesday, August 22. There is a sign-up sheet in the back of the room if you would like to go with the group.
3. The Clayton Paver Project is well underway and members of BAGS were informed of its progress.
4. The BAGS Board voted to have another nationally known speaker present a one day program in 2008. We have invited Christine Rose to come to Houston and share some of her infinite knowledge with us. More information later.
5. The cemetery project has slowed up for the summer but we expect to be in full swing again when the rain stops and the heat subsides.
6. Officer candidates were introduced to the membership for the 2008-2009 term. Members were informed that candidate nominees would be accepted until mid August and elections would be held at the August general meeting.
7. A layout person is still needed for the newsletter and volunteers are welcome. Assistance will be given for those with no experience.
8. Annual Dues are due September 1, 2007. Rose Mary Fritz will accept your payment and contributions at each meeting until then.

Dick Warren introduced Ginny Toney who spoke on "Researching West Virginia".

Respectfully Submitted,

Mary Leonard Martin
Recording Secretary

P.S. Alice Braud-Jones filled in the details for Mary Martin who was not able to attend the meeting.
